Property Description

End-Unit Cupertino Townhouse 1 Bedroom Plus Bonus Room/Office, 1 Bathroom, Attached Extra-Wide Two Car Garage, Spacious, Bright, vaulted ceilings, beautiful views of mature pine trees from upper open floor plan living room, bonus room/office, dining room and kitchen with eat in counter.

Located approximately one mile from the Apple Spaceship Campus and in the distinguished Northpoint community in Cupertino, this uniquely situated spacious End-Unit townhouse is next to a green belt of expansive lawns and grove of mature pine trees. Enjoy the beautiful elevated views of mature pine trees out of the large sliding patio door and windows in the upper open floor plan living room, bonus room/office, dining room and kitchen with eat in counter. The vaulted ceilings, ample natural light and open floor plan add to the pleasing sense of spaciousness and openness.

At 1,062 SqFt, this spacious townhouse with an upper floor bonus room/office has the square footage of a two bedroom.

Enjoy the privacy of no one living above and/or below you, no units looking into your windows and/or your private fenced yard and your own private covered front entrance and porch.

Attached two car extra-wide garage with automatic door opener plus an extra year-round outside parking permit in the adjacent development parking spaces available for oversized vehicle or regular sized third vehicle. Guest parking also available in adjacent development parking spaces.

Enjoy the convenience of your own private Washer and dryer in the garage.

This townhouse is a unique find offering the best of both worlds. It is centrally located in the heart of the Silicon Valley with easy access to Highway 280, Highway 85 (to Highway 101, Highway 237 and Highway 880) and Lawrence Expressway, yet is uniquely surrounded by the openness and greenery of expansive lawns and mature pine trees.

Located between Wolfe Road and De Anza Blvd. on Homestead Road.

Nestled within the development accessible by Northpoint roads only.
