4 Beds 3 Baths Single Family House

Property Description

The Young plan at Luckey Ranch is a beautiful, two-story home offering four bedrooms and three full baths. Inside this new construction home, you will enjoy a huge family room, chef-ready kitchen, formal dining room, upstairs game room, abundance of storage space and more.

The upstairs game room is one of the most coveted features of this new construction home at Luckey Ranch. Enjoy this space as a playroom for the kids, your personal workout studio, a secondary living room, or just a place to enjoy your hobbies. Your family is sure to love the added space of the upstairs game room in the Young plan.

Upstairs, you will also find the remarkable master retreat of the Young plan. This spacious suite offers stunning, front yard views, plenty of space for your furniture needs and a huge walk-in closet. The master bath offers a beautiful, dual-sink vanity with great counter and cabinet storage, as well as an oversized shower.

At Luckey Ranch, residents enjoy world-class neighborhood amenities, as well as quick access to local schools, major employers, great shopping and dining, and all of life's necessities.
