

Resident Selection Criteria & Leasing Process Disclosure

General Information

Each adult applicant (18 or older) must submit a fully completed, dated, and signed application for residency along with a non-refundable application fee of $75.00. Each applicant must also present current, valid, government-issued photo identification.

Your application will not be considered without the required application fees and deposits. This form must accompany the rental application.

Application fees, deposits, and all move-in fees must be remitted in the form of money orders or certified funds (cash is not accepted).

You may be required to submit a separate application to a condo/homeowner's association and may be required to pay an additional application fee or an additional security- or damage-deposit to the association.

An investigative consumer report, including but not limited to, residential history (rental or mortgage), employment history, criminal history records, court records, and credit records, will be conducted as a part of the application process. If your application is denied, you will be provided with a notice of adverse action which will give you instructions on how to contact the consumer credit-reporting agency and obtain a free copy of your consumer credit report. A copy of "A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act" is attached to this document.

In accordance with federal, state, and local Fair-Housing laws, Mount Vernon Property Management, Inc. (MVPM) does not discriminate against anyone on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, familial status, national origin, disability, or sexual orientation.

Roommates

Roommates will be held equally responsible for rental agreements and must qualify separately on all criteria. Unmarried domestic partners and family members over the age of 18 are considered "roommates" for the purpose of the application for residency.

Exceptions to the Resident Selection Criteria

Any exceptions to our company's criteria will need to be submitted in writing for presentation to the landlord for consideration. If approval is given for such exceptions, additional security deposit, a guarantor, and/or additional advance-rent payments may be required.

Multiple Applications

Normally, applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis; however, MVPM may receive multiple applications from unrelated parties on the same property at approximately the same time. Due to our fiduciary responsibility to the property owner, if more than one (1) application is submitted before approval can be achieved, we will process all applications for consideration as to what we (in our sole discretion) deem the best applicant, which may not necessarily be the first application received. If your application is approvable, but not approved for the property for which you are applying (or the property for which you applied becomes unavailable for any other reason), you may consider applying for other properties MVPM has available within 15 days of payment of your application fee without payment of an additional application fee.

Good-Faith Deposit

MVPM requires a "Good-Faith Deposit" in certified funds in the amount of one month's rent to hold the property pending approval of this application and, when approved, your execution of a lease. The Good-Faith Deposit is non-refundable except when you cancel this application with written notice within 48 hours of MVPM's receipt of the Good-Faith Deposit, or if the application is not approved. If your application cannot be approved within 48 hours of receipt of the Good-Faith Deposit because you have not submitted a complete application (including all supporting materials), you will have waived your right to a refund of the Good-Faith Deposit if your application is ultimately declined. Please do not submit an incomplete application. Once your application is approved, the property will remain on the market for backup offers until which time a lease has been signed. If you are approved but fail to enter into the contemplated lease within 48 hours of receipt of the lease, MVPM's approval offer will be considered withdrawn without further notice, and the Good-Faith Deposit will be retained by MVPM as liquidated damages. If you are due a refund, it will be sent via mail to the address listed on the application within 30 days of your timely written notice of cancellation or our formal disqualification of your application. Upon lease-signing, a $150.00 fee for videotaped inspections and administrative costs will be deducted from the Good-Faith Deposit, with the remainder applied toward the security deposit. Should you seek to terminate the lease prior to the agreed-upon move-in date, MVPM shall retain the security deposit as liquidated damages. The $150.00 fee for videotaped inspections and administrative costs is required of each tenancy, is non-refundable, and will be due upon lease-signing, regardless of whether a Good-Faith Deposit has been paid.

Notice of Adverse Action

If your application is denied, you will be provided with a Notice of Adverse Action which entitles you to a copy of the credit report upon request within 60 days.

Application Processing Time

We will make every effort to process your application quickly; this will usually occur within 2 business days, provided we have received all requisite supporting documentation from you. Circumstances that may delay a decision on your application may include: additionally-required application materials or difficulty contacting references.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
- You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.

In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.

- You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
- You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
- Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
- Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
- Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need -- usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.

- You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
- You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
- You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
- Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.

States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:

Pet Application

This Pet Application is made as a part of the rental application for the property located at: _____

_____. I hereby request that my pet be approved to reside with me during the term of my lease agreement. If my pet is a service animal or a medically-necessary pet, I will notify Management in writing, and this Pet Application will not be applicable.

NOTE: This is a Pet Application only and not approval for a pet unless approved by Management, a Pet Addendum is executed by all parties, and all sums and fees are paid according to the Pet Addendum. In order for the pet to be permitted on the premises for any length of time, the pet must be fully approved by Management, a Pet Addendum signed by Tenant(s) and Management, and all fees paid which may include an additional security deposit, pet deposit, pet fee, or additional rent as required by Management. In addition, Owner may require Tenant to obtain renter's insurance including pet liability coverage in the minimum amount of $300,000.00 and provide a copy to Management prior to lease commencement.

I understand that Management is under no obligation to approve my pet for occupancy. The following pets will not be accepted under any circumstances: GERMAN SHEPHERDS, DOBERMANS, PIT BULLS (STAFFORDSHIRE TERRIERS), CHOWS, ROTTWEILERS, SIBERIAN HUSKIES, AKITAS, MALAMUTES, PRESA CANARIOS, WOLF-HYBRIDS, any mix of the aforementioned, or any other breed or mixture thereof that Management decides not to approve.

In consideration of having a pet go through this application process, I agree to pay a non-refundable Pet Application Fee of $100.00 to Management for each pet I wish to bring onto the premises. I further understand that the Pet Application Fee is strictly an administrative fee paid to Management and is not considered a security deposit, pet deposit, or pet fee. Management requires a photo of the pet for Management's files and a copy of the pet's vaccination information from the veterinarian. If approved, a pet addendum, and additional pet rent of $25.00/mo. per pet is generally required. Certain properties may require other pet fees or monthly pet rent.
